

PRESS RELEASE

Accra, Ghana
July 30, 2024

JL PROPERTIES SIGNS MOU TO START CONSTRUCTION OF PAN AFRICAN HERITAGE MUSEUM

The physical construction of the Pan African Heritage Museum is to begin in August 2024 following a Memorandum of Understanding signed today in Accra between the Executive Board of the Museum led by Founder/Chairman Kojo Yankah and Dr. James Orleans Lindsay, CEO/Chairman of JL Properties, a leading Real Estate Developer in Ghana. The first phase of the Museum Complex, which includes the Museum building, Herbal Plant Farm, Chalets, Heroes and Heroines Park, Palace of African Kingdoms, Children's Playground, and a Food Court, is expected to be ready for commissioning in 2026.

Present at the signing ceremony were some directors of both companies and the Management of the African University College of Communications. The construction will be funded through Donations and Grants. The digital version of the Museum is available on the website of the Museum @ www.pahmuseum.org

Issued by PAHM Communications Department

